PIR INDYCAR VERIZON INDYCAR SERIES: APRIL 1-2, 2016

IndyCar competition arrives at PIR this year, with the Phoenix Grand Prix running under the lights on Saturday night, April 2—combining open-wheel speeds in excess of 180 mph on the one-mile oval with the added thrill of night racing.

This will be the second race of 2016 for the Verizon IndyCar Series, following the season opening race at St. Petersburg FL on March 13. A highlight of this season's schedule will be the 100th running of the Indianapolis 500 on Sunday, May 29, with the season finale on September 18 in Sonoma, California.

Since its opening in 1964, PIR served primarily open-wheel racing until NASCAR arrived in 1977. The track continued hosting Indy car races through 2005, with many of the greats competing here. Four-time Indy 500 champ AJ Foyt won the inaugural pro race at PIR, with a total of four wins here; fellow four-time Indy 500 winner Al Unser has a track-record six open-wheel wins at PIR; and four-time Indy car season champ Mario Andretti had the last win of his career here in 1993.

"I am so happy to see the Verizon IndyCar Series returning to Phoenix International Raceway," said Unser Jr., who is tied for seventh on the all-time Indy car victory list with 34. "It was always one of my favorite tracks, even though I never was able to win a race there in 19 tries. Dad won there six times and Uncle Bobby won four, so the Unser name still has quite a legacy at PIR. Indy cars always put on a great show at PIR over the years and I know they will again in 2016."

The Phoenix Grand Prix will be the second of three race events in 2016 at PIR. The Camping World 500 NASCAR Sprint Cup Series race weekend runs three weeks earlier, from March 11-13, then NASCAR will return to Phoenix for the semifinal race in the 2016 Chase for the Sprint Cup, on the weekend of November 11-13, 2016.

Tickets range from $35 to $70 including Pit Road access. Kids are $10. Active-duty military and veterans also receive discounts. For tickets, visit PhoenixRaceway.com or call 866-408-RACE (7223). ■
