

Subaru Rally Team USA in 1-2 finish at 2014 Oregon Trail Rally

Defending Rally America Champion David Higgins won the 2014 Oregon Trail Rally over teammate Travis Pastrana, after a massive comeback that came down to the last two stages of this three-day, 18 stage event. The event began with a unique combination of mixed gravel and tarmac stages at Portland International Raceway, then moved to scenic yet challenging gravel roads around the Hood River and Dufur regions east of Portland for the bulk of the event.

Pastrana had led the Oregon Trail Rally from the first stages and held his lead through all three days of competition—until the penultimate stage, where two flat tires, combined with a hard charging David Higgins, forced Pastrana to relinquish the lead and settle for second overall.

Pastrana and Higgins drove Vermont SportsCar-prepped 2014 Subaru WRX STI rally cars in a Subaru-dominated event, with the top five finishers at the wheel of Subaru rally cars.

Higgins' supremacy in Oregon is further solidified by this being his fourth win in a row and sixth total, having won every Oregon Trail Rally he has entered. The Oregon Trail Rally represents round three of the 2014 Rally America National Championship. ■

